

How Event Response Supported Our Customers Through Hurricane Ian

Prior to, during, and post-landfall, RMS Event Response served as an essential partner to our customers - big and small - in providing timely, impactful insights on Hurricane Ian to help them assess its potential impact on their portfolios.

US$67B

RMS best estimate in insured losses

HWind

US$53B - US$74B

estimate range of insured losses

Saffir-Simpson Hurricane Wind Scale

- Category 1 - 74-95 mph
- Category 2 - 96-110 mph
- Category 3 - 111-129 mph
- Category 4 - 130-156 mph
- Category 5 - 157+ mph

3 perils contributing to losses

430k+ buildings analyzed for damage

Work that Went on Behind the Scenes

50+

HWind storm updates

25+

real-time NHC updates available in ExposureIQ

Wind

Surge

Flood

5

apps to access event information

Live Risk Assessment

2,001 mi+

(3220 km) driven across the most impacted areas of Florida for reconnaissance

24/7 Live Monitoring

Boots on the Ground

Custom Event Reconstructions

Zero downtime

Committed to keeping clients informed

15+

packages of modeling and accumulation analytics to assess the storm's impact delivered to customers

5

blogs from industry leaders

2

global webinars

10+

customer updates

1

in-person event in London

